The President's Piece

By Gilbert K. Alford, Jr.

This is not your typical quarterly. Like other features in this issue, the President's Piece is being curtailed to make room for an unusually large section of new member lineages. We were running behind on publishing lineages, and the effort to catch up coupled with the significant increase in members in the last quarter overloaded this issue. You will see a return to normal in the next issue.

One quick official announcement. Ramona Alford Darden is now the permanent chair of the Meetings Committee. I thank Paul Alford for serving as temporary chair and Max and Earline Alford for their efforts. Ramona has several members helping one way or another: Paul Alford, Dovie Alford, Jim Alford, Evonne Alford, Max & Earline Alford, Seanne Carrigan, Ramona's daughter Jennifer Jackson, and her niece Renee Shelfer. We have not settled on the permanent committee members yet. In addition to the permanent members there will be those who come and go from the various states as the meetings move through their states.

Well, we made it to the big 1000! Maybe not by the end of last year, but not much later. As of the writing of this piece we have 1008 members. We have active members not only in the US but also in Canada, England, Australia and temporarily in Indonesia. Almost half of our membership is active, and about 20% of them are online.

Things are progressing well for the Kentucky meeting in October. Registration is well ahead of the average of prior years, and it is interesting to note that most of those who have registered come from California or Texas. We also see a good proportion of folks who are registering for their first meeting. If you have not registered with Doris Vetri, AAFA Treasurer, get that form filled out and mailed in right away. If you don't have hotel reservations, call 1-800-866-3636 and make them now. I suspect there will not be enough rooms for everyone—and you don't want to be the one coming up on the short end.

Things are also progressing well for the meeting in Texas, and we'll be able to provide information about the hotel at the meeting in Paducah. I should alert you now though that there has been some inflation in hotel rates. The "cheap" rates we enjoyed in California and have in Kentucky were based on contracts executed by Paul Alford almost two years ago. Working with the hotels in Texas for a meeting a year and one half from now reveals a considerable increase. You might want to start putting an extra dime or two in the piggy bank every day for TX99. The meetings committee will be making a recommendation to the membership in Paducah for a meeting state in 2002. Remember it is TX 1999, GA 2000, NC 2001. If you have some preferences, let Ramona know (email: RANDSHOUSE@aol.com).

I'm not sure many of you appreciate what AAFA has in what we call the Master Book List or MBL to those of us who use it all the time. I doubt if there is any other surname group that has tackled such an awesome and ambitious undertaking. Can you imagine being able to pick up one publication in which you can find an extraction—with source—of everything that has ever been written about Alford (and spelling variations) to the extent that we have been able to find it. I don't mean a bibliography or list of books that mention Alford. What our MBL has is an abstract of the pertinent information about the Alford. These are books that have been written over the last 300 years or so. (We don't include census and cemetery data in the MBL.) The last time we printed the entire collection was in November 1995. At that time there were 89 pages with information from over half the states in the nation. Over the last two years we have added considerably to that with the "Booklist Additions" that you will find in most issues of the quarterly, including this one. All of the entries are printed in these "Additions," but Pam keeps the whole thing organized in proper order in the master file. You ought to plan to purchase the entire collection when we print it the next time. Keep it for a reference and for your family and posterity. When there is a later version printed, then donate your old one to the local library and get the more current version. The MBL is also on the AAFA web site, so you could refer to it or download it from there. I promise you: there is no comparable Alford reference in the world—and likely never will be. The neat thing about the MBL is that it's a by product of Alford research and data collection—when copy and send pages from books containing "Alfords," the data is extracted and included in the MBL. Plus, all of the information in the MBL is slowly being loaded into the AAFA data base! We can use your help in doing this research and collecting this information, and we can use your help in keying the data into computer files. Those willing to help should contact me.

While I'm asking for your help I should mention one other thing. Folks frequently ask, "Do you want copies of things like birth certificates, marriage certificates, death certificates, etc." The answer is yes. You would be surprised how many of these we already have. If you do not have copies of such certificates for you and your immediate family and your parents then you ought to have them in your personal files anyway. Contact the office that handles vital statistics where the event took place, get yourself copies, and then send us a copy. We do not need certified copies. And as to what we want—anything that has "Alford" (or spelling variations) written on it! ❖

New Member Lineages

Prepared by Gil Alford with the help of most of the members listed.

Each of the lineages below was sent to the member for review and comment. Appropriate changes and corrections were made on those that were returned. Those for which there was no response are being published as is but are correct to the best of our knowledge.

The footnote numbers that appear for some records in the far right column refer to comments in previous issues, or for #15, to comments following the lineages. Due to space limitations, we do not repeat comments. Contact the AAFA treasurer for back issues @ $6.00.

It is important to note that the lineages begin with the first "Alford" ancestor—not always a parent. Dates are shown as year, month, day. A "ca" following a date means "circa" or "about." A "?" means we are not sure or don't know. "<" means before the date and ">" means after the date. "E" or "Est" means estimated. Locations are usually expressed as a state and county abbreviation.

There is a delay between the time new members join AAFA and the time their lineages are published. We'd like to shorten the lead time on publication of lineages but can only do that if members respond quickly when they receive a draft for review.

Remember that AAFA is not presenting this as proven factual data. It represents the best we have and is only as good as the data reported by members. In a few rare cases there may be some conclusion reached by the compiler. This data does not come from the same computer file used in the compilation of the branch genealogies. Members are requested to bring differences, errors and omissions to our attention.

The header for each set of footnotes, identified by the bullet (•), consists of the Reference code, the subject's name, and the AAFA family code.

For example: Gil's Reference code is GIL926SC, indicating that he was born in 1926 in South Carolina. The family code is usually a combination of the AAFA branch indicator and the code of the subject's ultimate ancestor. Gil is in the JOH807LA branch of the John Alford born 1807 in Louisiana. Branches are usually identified to the ancestor born nearest to 1800. The code for Gil's ultimate ancestor (earliest proven ancestor) is JAM687VA which is James Alford born 1687 in Virginia. Therefore, his family is identified by JOH807LA/JAM687VA.

Sometimes AAFA has been unable to get back to an ancestor born near 1800 in which case the branch is identified by the earliest known ancestor and / !!!!!!! with the exclamation points reminding us we need to give attention to this matter. There is no other ultimate ancestor in those cases.

We are trying to show the source of AAFA's information where possible. Sometimes that is a routine bibliographic reference. More frequently it is information from an AAFA member or some person who has been in touch with AAFA or, before AAFA, with Gil. That person will normally be identified under sources along with the AAFA file code like "GKA" for Gil. If the source is a member of AAFA, the member number will also be shown. The file code may be used in the "AAFA COMMENTS," so look under "SOURCES" for an explanation of the code.

We ask that all members assist us in improving our source data. Send us specific information as to your source—and when possible—a copy of the source. Yes, we do want copies of birth certificates, death certificates, marriage certificates, wills, etc.

AAFA COMMENTS:

Born near Wakefield, Wake County, NC. (CHS)

From Wake County Genealogical Society. WAKE TREASURES, Volume 2, Number 2, p. 13:

"NANCY LILES/FATHER NOT NAMED. State Vs Nancy LILES. WARRANT. Whereas information hath been made to us two of the Justices—that Nancy LILES Single woman is delivered of a Chile and a Bastard and may become Charable (sic) to the County. Therefore to Command you to Apprehend and bring before us or any two Justices. Afore-said Nancy LILES to answer the matter alleged against her for which this shall be your Sufficient Warrant given under our hands and Seals this 7th of June 1813. W. FERRELL JP. Chs KING JP."

"Nancy LILES to BOND 5 sh paid. Know all men by these presents that I Nancy LILES, Reuben JORDEN and Sollamon TODD hereby Acknowledge ourselves indebted to Nathaniel JONES Chairman of the Justices Sum of fifty pounds for & in Consideration of the Condition hereunder written we bind our selves, heirs, admr Exors Jointly & Severally in Presents of these witnesses this 19th day of June 1813.

Signed: Nancy (x) LILES, Reuben JORDEN, Solomon TODD in presence of Green ALFORD, Chs. KING.
Condition of Obligation: bounden Nancy LILES has been delivered of a bastard Child—if said Child does never become Charable to the County then above Obligation to be void but otherwise to Remain in force & virtue.”

[Nancy Liles' child was probably the first born recorded, Martha Helen Alford b. about 1814. We have no data on her descendants but know she was married twice. Ironically, in August 15 1812 Green Alford sat as a Justice on a similar charge against a woman named Nancy Stubbs.]

AAFA COMMENTS: Bondsman for the 1813 marriage was Ruben Jordan.

Undocumented data submitted by AAFA members:

Charles Sleight (CHS) AAFA #441 submitted a family group record listing him as Nathaniel Green Alford, but no evidence has been found to support the “Nathaniel.”

Wife, Nancy, was daughter of Micajah and Nancy (Woodard) Liles. (LHA)

Died near Cary, Wake County, NC. Buried in family plot at High House near Cary, NC (CHS).

RESEARCH REQUIRED: The late Dr. James M. Edwards, AAFA #008 submitted data showing that Green Alford was the son of Lodwick Alford and cited his Estate, particularly: “see Will of Lodowick Alford, Wake Co. N.C. dated 1820, on file, Microfilm JB182, #290. pp.283-6, and 367, Raleigh Archives for proof.”

The LDS-IGI, which can be wrong, shows Green, born 1787 Wakefield, Wake Co., NC to be son of Lodwick or Tanner Alford. AAFA has a copy of the LDS-IGI entry form that was the source and it came from a Mary Helen Schaubhuth, 1609 W. Nash Street, Wilson, NC 27893. There is no date but it is suspected, based on the batch number, that it was done in 1984.

Family tradition supports the idea that Green was the son of Lodwick. The family tradition says that Lodwick did not like Nancy Liles, wife of Green so he left him out of the will. Considering the circumstances of the marriage (see above) that seems possible. AAFA has a copy of the will that is “in circulation” and it does not mention Green as a son. Since it is known that false versions of some wills and other documents do get in circulation someone needs to check the specific source cited (Microfilm JB182, #290. p.283-6, and 367, Raleigh Archives) and report the findings to AAFA Research Committee. AAFA COMMENTS: The grandfather of Judythe, Harry, was adopted by the Keyser family after his mother died when he was only eight months old. Were it not for the adoption, Judythe would be named Alford. She has the same percentage of Alford blood as most other Alford's therefore she is being recorded as a "full blooded" Alford in AAFA records.

Family Group Record compiled by the late Tressie (Mrs. Lewis O.) Bowman (LOB) AAFA #039 on Rebecca Alford Hazard.

AAFA COMMENTS: Some folks want to make this Julius Harmon Alford a son of Jacob and Frankie Seaborn Alford. This is not a logical connection for the following reasons. There was another son named Julius. This Julius Harmon Alford was born 1819 in Mississippi and there is no indication that Jacob and Frankie ever resided in Mississippi. East Feliciana Parish, and Sabine Parish estate records prove the Julius C. Alford of Sabine Parish as the descendant of Jacob. St. Helena Parish Succession records suggest other family connections for Julius Harmon Alford in Mississippi. Julius had an older sister, Rebecca Alford who married Jan 20 1826 in St. Helena Parish, LA to Raleigh Hazard. Her marriage record proves that she was a ward of a family who lived in Lawrence County, MS and was therefore not a daughter of Jacob and Frankie Seaborn Alford.

Apparently Julius's parents' estate records placed some requirement for him to be tutored. He released this tutor April 14, 1841.

Information submitted by Beverly Brown (BBR) and John A. McCall (JHN) AAFA #920

AAFA COMMENTS: Excerpt from July, 1992 letter from Beverly Brown of Newton, IA:

"My 3rd great grandmother is Susan Alford born c 1785 in KY/VA. Susan was the second wife of John Goosey, son of Peter Sr., and they were married 24 May 1808 in Clay Co. KY. John probably died before 1820, as Susan is listed as head of house in the 1820 Henry Co. KY census.

"At some point in the 1820s Susan and her children must have moved to southern IN, as I find the marriages of three of the girls in Crawford Co. IN. Mariah born 1809 KY m. 13 Dec 1827 James Prather. James and Mariah are my second great grandparents; Mary "Polly" married 29 Jul 1827 to Roswell Main, son of Meacham; Susan married 28 Feb 1828 to Thomas Chanley. There was a son John Goosey Jr., born 20 Jun 1810. He married Kathryn Tipton 1/3 Dec 1843 Coles Co. IL. I have found descendants in each of the families of the above 4 children. The fifth child, Letitia, was married 28 Sep 1848 Coles Co. IL to James Hutton.

"Susan Alford Goosey remarried 19 Nov 1829 Edgar Co. IL to Meacham Main, father-in-law of her daughter Mary "Polly". Apparently this couple separated or was divorced in the mid 1840's, as Meacham is later in IN with his family and Susan is in IL with her daughter Letitia, until Susan's death in 1870 at Mattoon IL, and she is buried there. Her headstone names her Susan Goosey. I know nothing about Susan's parents."

John A. McCall, AAFA #920 offered the following in February 1998:

"I have confirmed from Karen Zike, of the library in Charleston, IL, that Susan Alford was buried on Lot 417, Mound Cemetery, Charleston, IL. The name on her tombstone is Susan Goosey. The dates on the tombstone are 1785-1870."

"I have found nothing to indicate that she ever lived in or near Mattoon, IL. She is shown on the 1870 US census as living in Charleston, Twp., Charleston, IL. I have found no evidence as to her specific date of death which must have occurred sometime after 1 June 1870."

Mattoon and Charleston are in Coles County, Illinois. The towns are about ten miles apart as the crow flies. There is a Mattoon town and township as well as a Charleston town and township.

The birth in KY/VA as shown by

Beverly is a moot point because Kentucky was part of Virginia in 1785. (2/98)

San Diego, CA—19 Aug 1997

When word of last night's tentative agreement between the Teamsters and United Parcel Service reached the picket line in Kearny Mesa, union members were relieved even though the terms of the pact were not known....

Gene Alford, a part-time worker at the Kearny Mesa facility, expressed concern some Teamsters had gone back to work prematurely.

"Right now, they have to feel like the biggest suckers in San Diego," he said. "They have to live with their consciences and know that everybody hates them . . . I don't want to hear about their money problems. I have money problems, too."

Palo Alto, CA—Friday, 27 Dec 1996

From Stanford Shopping Center to Palo Alto's California Avenue, local retailers were smiling about this year's shopping season.... "It's just been extraordinary," said Susan Frank, director of the Palo Alto Chamber of Commerce. Frank said this was the best shopping season locally in five years....

From Town and Country Village to California Avenue, the story was much the same. "It's been very busy," said Jeff Alford, assistant manager at Keeble and Shuchat on California Avenue, noting that with fewer days between Thanksgiving and Christmas this year, the procrastinators were out in force as it got closer to Christmas.

CLIMENA ALFORD WIKOFF

TELEGRAPH HERALD

Lake Placid hotel known for its hospitality

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—....The Mirror Lake Inn wasn't just built. Rather, it has evolved since opening in the mid-1920s. As the story goes, when the telephone company came to town to bring Alexander Graham Bell's invention to the rugged Adirondack Mountains, the linemen needed a place to stay, knocked on the door of Climena Alford Wikoff, and she took them in.

From that rudimentary beginning, Wikoff and her husband William created the Mir-a-Lac Inn.

Renamed the Mirror Lake Inn in 1933, it quickly became a special place, known as much for its fine food as its hospitality. And no wonder. The Wikoffs had their own vegetable garden, raised their own pigs, cured their own bacon, and had special arrangements with local farmers to ensure long harvest periods and the freshest vegetables.

Ed Weibrecht purchased the inn from the Wikoff family in 1976....

A decade of hard work literally went up in smoke on Jan. 10, 1988. A fire destroyed the inn despite the efforts of hundreds of volunteer firefighters.

Although the inn was a total loss, the fire proved a blessing in disguise. It allowed the Weibrechts to make the inn state-of-the-art with plenty of luxuries....

The old has not been forgotten. A grandfather clock and grand piano, both salvaged from the fire, grace the mahogany-trimmed lobby, which feels more like a living room with its many porches, library and stone fireplace.

The foundation of a marriage that lasts 50 years is "a four-letter word—love," says Clyde Matthews, 79, East Hampton.

"Florence and I are living proof of that," says Matthews, married 54 years. "We are equal partners and best friends."

The Matthewses and other couples married 50 years or more see themselves in a true, sharing partnership—but not one that means some kind of 50-50 split every day, new research shows.

The partners "talk about marriage being 50-50 over the long haul—but at different times one spouse gives more to the marriage than the other," says Finnegan Alford-Cooper, a sociologist and gerontologist at Long Island University.

Albany Man Acquitted of Slaying Erstwhile Roommate

ALBANY—A 35-year-old city man on trial for murder walked out of the Albany County Courthouse Thursday a free man.

A jury found Lennon Alford not guilty of the murder of Christopher Gill, who was found stabbed to death in his one-bedroom Albany apartment last May.

"I got justice," Alford said as he left the courtroom, free for the first time in 10 months.

At trial, Alford was presented as a homeless crack fiend who prostituted himself for drugs. When asked what he intended to do with his life, he said: "Change it."

Alford, looking stunned and exhausted, praised his lawyer, Thomas Neidl of Albany, but declined further comment.

Alford left the courthouse alone, much the way he endured the five-day trial before Albany County Court Judge Larry J. Rosen. While the courtroom in murder trials is often filled with friends and family of the defendant and victim, the gallery was mainly empty during the trial. Not a single friend or family member of either the defendant or the victim was on hand to hear Alford pronounced a free man by a jury that returned a verdict just before 6 p.m. after deliberating for four hours.

Indeed, the person Assistant District Attorney Paul A. Clyne presented as being closest to Alford—a former girlfriend—testified against him, stating that Alford had threatened to stab her as he had stabbed Gill and had bragged about committing the "perfect crime."

Neidl argued that this testimony was tainted because it grew out of a deal the woman, Dawn Timmons, struck with police that enabled her to avoid a 90-day jail sentence on a prior conviction in exchange for her statement.

Juror Paul Dilello of Loudonville agreed that the woman's testimony — the prosecution's primary proof that Lennon killed Gill—was not convincing enough to warrant a guilty verdict. "We just felt that there was not enough physical evidence presented that swayed us to believe he was guilty," Dilello said. "There was nothing that placed him in that apartment."

Gill's decomposed body, which had been stabbed eight times, was found May 10, 1996, in the bedroom of his apartment by a Lincoln Square apartments maintenance worker—at least three days after police suspect the murder occurred. There were no signs of forced entry.

Testimony showed that Alford lived periodically with the victim and had been staying there around the time of the murder. But Neidl argued that Gill had frequent visitors and that any one of them might have been responsible for the murder.

Forensic detectives found no physical evidence linking Alford—who was not charged with the crime until four months after the murder—to the apartment....

The Power of Prayer Chains Becomes a Popular Means of Attaining Support, Help in a Crisis

.... Prayer chains, a phenomenon largely, but not exclusively, of evangelical churches, are like the bucket brigades of a congregation, a way of summoning emergency help fast for a neighbor in need.

In their simplest form, they consist of a group of church members who have made a commitment to pray regularly in response to specific crises. The prayer chain is activated with a single telephone call that leads to other calls down a list. Within hours, dozens of people have been notified to commence praying....

The Rev. Michael Alford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Schenectady, is a member of the executive board of the National Association of Evangelicals. He's been a pastor since 1964 and all of his churches have had prayer chains. He suspects the tradition is so old that its origin has been lost in evangelical history, but it probably started as a grass-roots movement in small congregations that emphasized frequent prayer as the best way to establish a personal relationship with God....

Alford, of the First Presbyterian Church in Schenectady, has seen people's faith tested over the years when a tragedy struck despite the all-out efforts of a prayer chain. In fact, acceptance of God's will can be even more difficult when a prayer chain is used, because a despairing person may ask why the prayers of so many were not heard.

"Prayer is in two measures," Alford said. "One is the assurance of God's presence and the other is the answers to our petitions. I have to remind them that our prayers are not just for the answers. God is always looking ahead; we sometimes, at best, are looking at the present."

You're driving down the road, trying to decide if you like the paint job on the car in front of you when, suddenly, you're jolted from your reverie by a 25-foot fish or a 30-foot man greeting you from the side of the road.

Store owners have built or purchased such traffic-stopping statues to help promote their businesses. The tactic seems to be a successful one. Some helpful advice: when you jerk your head to the left to catch a glimpse, try not to let your car follow your stare....

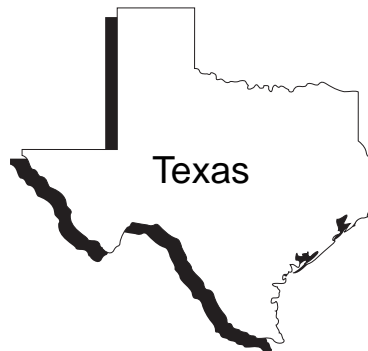

"It was built to look like me," a laughing Steve Alvord said about the 30-foot giant man stationed in front of his Alvord's House of Leather in Mayfield. Alvord paid for the statue with the intent, he confessed, to be "a traffic-stopper."

Hand-built in Pennsylvania in 1969 by Rod Shutt, the statue was formed in eight months and then transported to Mayfield in one piece by truck. "It had a big following right from the start," Alvord said, chuckling as he remembered the entourage of cars that had followed the statue from Pennsylvania to New York out of curiosity.

Located on Route 30 in Mayfield, near the Adirondack State Park, the statue has been the subject of many stares and photographs.

"Probably, there has been a picture taken of this statue from every state and at least a dozen foreign countries," Alvord said....

For maxi minimalism, live with, and for, art

By Gaile Robinson of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Less is next. Lurid cabbage-rose prints, poufy balloon valances and poorly rendered faux finishes are passe. Think instead of monastic simplicity....

Minimalism scares people, because few people have the confidence to let an item or possession stand on its own, says Brad Alford, the only designer who dared a minimalist entry in the recent Street of Dreams home tour in Fort Worth [TX].

Alford is quick to admit that a minimally furnished room could cost as much as a decorated-to-death phantasmagoria. "Minimal requires phenomenal architecture and excellence in building quality. You don't have to cover over what's bad.

"The next-hardest thing is making people realize that one piece of furniture —while it may be very, very expensive—can carry a whole room. Furniture needs to be considered an accessory, like jewelry...."

HOUSTON CHRONICLE
 Houston, TX—19 May 1996

....The National Domestic Violence Project is about 18 months old. It works like this: Women who bear scars from a battering relationship but can't afford plastic surgery may call a toll free number, (800) 842-4546. To qualify for help, they have to be able to verify the abuse with a police report, an emergency room report or a recommendation from a professional who works with battered women. They also must agree to counseling and have been out of the clutches of the batterer for at least a year.

If a woman can meet those requirements, she will get the names of plastic surgeons in her area who are members of the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and participants in the program.

In Houston, eight plastic surgeons have volunteered their services to the cause. Each doctor has the right to deny patients' requests for help if they seem to be poor candidates for surgery, just as the patients are free to shop for the doctor who best meets their needs.

Dr. Eugene Alford, director of the facial plastic and reconstructive surgery division of the department of otolaryngology at Baylor College of Medicine, operated on Hefner on March 19.

"Our goal is to rehabilitate patients and families," Alford says. "Yes, we want to correct the face, we want to eliminate the daily reminders of abuse and allow the women to go on with their lives. But we do that after there has been counseling and rehabilitation."

Five women participating in the domestic violence project have come to see Alford. He's operated on only two. Two others have medical problems that have to be corrected before he can make his magic. The fifth woman, who has gone through counseling and was supposed to be shed of her abusive relationship, came to see him with a bruise on her arm.

"She was in another violent relationship," Alford says. "She told me, 'If you fix my nose and make it straight, people won't think I'm ugly and they won't hate me.'

"I told her, 'Straightening your nose is not going to stop the abuse. You've got to take charge of your own life.'"

Plastic surgery, Alford says, "is just the bonus that takes away the pain the patients see in the mirror. It doesn't change your life, your personality or who you are...."

CLAYTON—Eloy Gonzales remembers clearly the telephone call that started a nearly seven-year sojourn to establish a Veterans Affairs clinic in Clayton.

"This lady called me one day and asked if anybody could help her," said Gonzales, disabled veterans commander in Clayton. "She was having to take her husband to Amarillo twice a week for care, and it was a hardship for both of them."

Gonzales saw other friends and neighbors making the trek to Amarillo or Albuquerque as well and decided Clayton needed a clinic of its own. So he started working the telephones, with the help of other veterans in the area.

On Tuesday, the work paid off as the Amarillo VA Medical Center opened the VA Primary Care Clinic in Clayton....

"It took a long time, it sure did, but it was worth it."

Mike Alford, adjutant at the Clayton Veterans of Foreign Wars post, agrees.

"Certainly it will help," Alford said. "Used to be we'd have the VA nurse from Raton come on the third Wednesday of every month, for two hours. In the past that has actually helped out a lot. But this will be much better. It was sorely needed."

Missing elderly Texas couple found dead in Arkansas
By Melissa Williams, Associated Press

maroon Oldsmobile for Pioneer Days, a fiddling festival 15 miles away in Temple, her 57-year-old son implored her to let him drive.

"He was begging her, 'Let me take you,'" 43-year-old Rhonda Alford, one of Lela Howard's five grandchildren, recalled of that June 28 morning. "She said, 'No, we know where to go. We go every year.'"

On Saturday, the elderly couple were found dead in their vehicle, hidden by dense brush more than 350 miles from home near Hot Springs, Ark. Authorities said they apparently became disoriented and eventually drove off the road. No foul play was suspected.

It was a wrenching conclusion to two weeks of frantic searching by law enforcement agencies and relatives.

But family members said that if there were any consolation to be had, they found it in knowing the two were together at the end.

"They were pretty much inseparable," Cathy Drake, 53, said Sunday of her father and the woman he married in 1986 after both had lost spouses. "It was one of these kinds of relationships you don't really see happen that late in life."

Raymond Howard, 88, was a carpenter who helped build Fort Hood during the 1940s, had two daughters 12 years apart and was married to Ethel Howard for 53 years before her death.

Lela Howard, 83, was married nearly 40 years to a farmer, Jesse Copeland, and had worked as a beautician after her son and daughter were grown. On Saturday mornings, she liked to have granddaughter Rhonda do her hair, fixing it just so for Sunday church....

It was at that very church, First Nazarene in Belton, that she met her second husband. Both families had attended for years, and after Howard's wife died, they got to talking after Sunday morning and evening services....

In short order they were married at a parson's house in San Antonio. The couple set up housekeeping at Lela Howard's home....

Mother's Day, You and the Meaning of Blue

June 4, 1995

Dearest Mother,

I want to thank you for the beautiful blue-and-white cups you sent me on my 60th birthday. For blue linen napkins and the white place mats. I want to thank you for introducing me to blue. The cobalt blue of your beautiful English eyes. It must have been the first thing I ever saw. Smiling down at me as they have for all my 60 years. Thank you for not dying. Here I am, 60 years old and I have never had to grieve for deep or tragic loss. That's what your death would be to me.

Imagine not being able to call and tell you my troubles. I tell you my troubles to take your mind off your own, I never told you that, did I? It's a secret I've been keeping for about 20 years. You are 27 years older than I am and your troubles are harder than mine, so I always call up and tell you about my allergies and my back and neck and insect bites. Everyone knows there is nothing wrong with me. I pretend to be a hypochondriac in order to deliver messages to you. The message is, our bodies heal themselves. Thank you for the powerful healthy genes. Tomorrow the sun will be shining and we will be like new. I know you. Every morning you think the world is beginning all over and all will be well with the world. I think so, too. Where do you think I got an idea like that?

But mostly the thing I keep forgetting to tell you is how much I love the aesthetic that you gave me. I used to think it was funny that I can't talk myself into being tacky. I used to try. I would go out and buy outlandish clothes or shoes or think of painting something red but I could never carry it off. I like blue and navy blue and black and white and yellow. The way you dressed me when I was a child.

I want rooms simple and clean and quiet, with a bowl of fresh roses or lilies on a table. Not two bowls of flowers. One bowl of flowers. I don't want to outdo anyone. I want to make things that people think are beautiful and let them look at the things I made. When I write, I want to solace and amuse my readers. Sometimes I want to shock them into being solaced. I didn't learn that from you. I know I have a hit on my hands when you call me up after I have written a book and tell me, "Ellen, this is filthy." If you knew how much I love it when you say that, you would never do it.

Do you know where cobalt blue comes from? Our favorite color. It was brought to China from Turkey by the Chinese traders on the Silk Road. They discovered the cobalt tiles in the temples of Turkey and brought it back just in time for the Ming dynasty. I love those cups you gave me for my 60th birthday. I drink coffee out of them each morning. I put one in each bathroom in my house. I put those beautiful white place mats on the table and blue linen napkins and eat dinner in the heart of the civilization you passed on to me.

I am sorry you are growing old and have to have your knee operated on and put up with the long recovery. I'm sorry that it takes so long for cuts to heal. But I never say this to you. I call you up the minute you get back from the hospital and start telling you my problems. A girl with a mother like you should have better manners than that. A girl with a mother like you should know how to exhibit sympathy. Instead, I do it the way I have always done it when you were sick or injured. I call, and, as soon as you answer, I say, "Hello, my mother. This is me."

"How are you?" you immediately ask.

"Well, my allergies are better but I've had to go to the chiropractor about a hundred times this week for my neck. You should see my cherry tree. There are 5 million cherries on it and about a thousand birds. There are 20 different species in that tree. There are redbirds and bluebirds and blue jays by the dozens. There is a pileated woodpecker the size of a dinosaur. How are you? How's your leg?"

You know me like a book. I can't fool you. You know what I am saying, don't you? Like you know how much it pleases me when something I write shocks you. Scares and pleases me. In your presence I am not a writer. I am a hyperactive, redheaded child whom it is your duty to love and civilize.

You don't know how you have civilized me. You will never know how much you've taught me and how deep the lessons go. I think you know I love you. I know that you love me.

Don't die.

Love, Ellen

On our lives

• Ellen Louise Gilchrist was born Feb. 20, 1935, in Vicksburg, Miss. Married four times. Twice to the father of her children. She has three sons and seven grandchildren. Four grandsons and three granddaughters. She has published 14 books. Once she almost died in an airplane crash, and as the plane was falling, she said the names of the children to herself and then the names of her books. So this must be the only biographical material that is of any real importance. She has a B.A. in philosophy from Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., and several honorary degrees, of which she is very proud. She lives alone in an old wood house with glass walls on the east and west and paints everything white and grayish blue. She wears blue and white except for when she is feeling wild, and then she wears yellow or, very occasionally, dark pink. ### ALBERT CAMPBELL ALFORD

Father of Alberta Alford Skillen,
AAFA #15

Albert Campbell Alford, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Austin Alford, was born in Quartz Valley [Siskiyou Co., CA] September 22nd 1877. There he lived until he was ten years of age, when he went to Oregon with his father and a twin brother where they resided for four years. He then returned to Scott Valley where he made his home until the time of his death.

He was married to Alice Callihan on August, 20th 1910. They made their home in Oro Fino, where their four children were born.

He was stricken with influenza which developed into pneumonia and passed away on March 6th 1920 [in Siskiyou Co., CA].

He leaves to mourn, a wife and four children, Austin aged 8, Rhoda aged 7, Lucille aged 4, and Alberta aged 1, a twin brother, Alfred Alford, a sister, Mrs. Edith McNames of Montague, besides other relatives.

He was a loving husband and kind father and the sorrowing ones will feel his loss deeply. They have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Thus passes from us an industrious, kind and honest man.

AAFA NOTES: Albert's wife died 11 May 11 1932. On his way home from work a few days before he died, Albert took a paper from his Prince Albert tobacco can and wrote this letter to his wife:

"Dear wife and baby. I am sick, think got the flu. If I don't come out of it, make the best you can of it. Stay with the place and cows till you can do better. Keep the kidds all together. God be with you till we meet again. — Bert Alford"

Alberta has this tobacco paper and shared a copy with AAFA. If anyone would like a copy, please write to AAFA.

Alford 3rd Great Grandparents

32. John Alford born about 1735, Ireland, married in Ireland, Nancy _____. John died 1809, Rockingham County, Virginia. There was a John Alford with son Benjamin and John Jr., who was evidently over 21, in Rockingham County, VA in 1788. In 1792, John Alford was listed with sons Robert and Benjamin still living at home. John, Jr. was no longer listed. John Alford, Sr. owned 180 acres of land in 1789 which seems to have been on Mill Creek just north of the town of Cross Keys. The will of this John Alford, dated or probated 25 October 1809 in Rockingham County, VA seems to have burned and is no longer available, however several deeds referring to the will help determine some of the members of this family. Census records, tax records and these deeds suggest John's wife was Nancy and that they had the children listed below, who are not necessarily in the order of birth.

The family seems to have come from Ireland to Augusta County, VA by 1774 at which time John Alford donated shoe buckles, whisky, compasses and buttons to the cause of the American Revolution.

LUCY CATHERINE ALFORD CURLEY

BUFFALO NEWS
Buffalo, NY—7 March 1997

Lucy Alford Curley, 86, the first woman to serve as city treasurer in Buffalo and a stalwart of the Democratic Party, died Wednesday (March 5, 1997) in the St. Francis Geriatric & Healthcare Services center.

In addition to being the first female treasurer of a large municipality in the United States, she was the first woman to serve in a Buffalo mayor's Cabinet.

"There wasn't a finer or more effective woman to grace politics than Lucy Curley," said Joseph F. Crangle, former state and Erie County Democratic chairman.

"There wasn't a more loyal supporter of the party than Lucy. The great thing is, she did it with class—but also with such ease. She was a pioneer at doing what women today take for granted—and she never ran away from a fight."

Columnist, commentator and retired Buffalo News political reporter George Borrelli called Mrs. Curley "a trailblazer."

"She was certainly a leading light in politics in Erie County," Borrelli said.

"She attended most state Democratic functions and went to the national conventions. She was a groundbreaker for women in Erie County politics. She had a high niche in the party at a stage when not too many women were influential in Erie County politics."

A vice chairman of the Erie County Democratic Committee for 25 years, Mrs. Curley was appointed city treasurer in 1955 and held the post under three mayors ... until she retired in November 1976.

"I left City Hall with mixed emotions," she said two weeks later. "Heck, I'd been there so long I felt part of the place belonged to me."

A vibrant woman with a deep, crisp voice, the former Lucy Catherine Alford was born in Fort Smith, Ark., and attended the University of Arkansas. She and her husband, Edward P. Curley, came to the Buffalo area in the late 1930s.

Mrs. Curley, whose father had been an alderman, became active in politics a decade later.

She worked on President Harry S. Truman's 1948 campaign under the auspices of Paul E. Fitzpatrick, then Democratic state chairman and a confidant of Truman's.

In 1954, she was a co-chairman for the election of New York Gov. W. Averell Harriman. She became a close friend and adviser to Harriman and was also active in the elections of Presidents John F. Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson and Jimmy Carter.

Appointed deputy city treasurer by Pankow in 1953, she became city treasurer two years later.

"She was widely acclaimed as the first major woman figure in local politics," said her daughter, Lucy Curley Haley.

"But more than her formal service to city and party, she is remembered as a beacon and counselor to hundreds of young women who, because of her example and her interest in them, began careers in politics and government," Mrs. Haley said.

As a vice chairman of the Erie County Democratic Committee, Mrs. Curley "was also the titular head of the Democratic women's division, where she was instrumental in creating over a dozen local Democratic women's organizations," her daughter said.

"As often as she would be found at the podium extolling the virtues of Democratic candidates for public office, more often she would be found exhorting young women to run for public office themselves, or to take an otherwise active role in public life."

A vice chairman of the Erie County Democratic Committee under Peter A. Crotty and later under Crangle, Mrs. Curley served on both the party's executive and finance committees.

Through the years, she was a professional member of the Government Finance Officers Association, the New York Society of Fiscal Officers and the Zonta Club of Buffalo. She was listed in "Who's Who of American Women" and "Who's Who in American Politics."

A Eucharistic minister and longtime member of the former St. Joseph's New Cathedral, she had been a member of Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church on Delaware Avenue since the New Cathedral was torn down.

She was a former member of the New Cathedral's Altar Society, School Guild and Catholic Youth Council, the St. Mary's Seminary Guild, and the Mothers Club of Canisius High School.

The first woman elected to the board of trustees of Canisius High School, where her children set up a full scholarship in her name, she was also active in the United Way, the Cancer Crusade and the American Red Cross.

In 1980, her daughter bought a landmark brick building at 370 Franklin St. and named it the Lucy A. Curley Building after her mother. It houses Mrs. Haley's grant and loan consulting business, Lucy Curley & Co.

Mrs. Curley lived on Linwood and Delaware avenues through the years. Her husband, an administrator in the legal division of the Veterans Administration hospital for 40 years, died in 1980.

Surviving in addition to her daughter are two sons, D. Patrick of Orchard Park and Michael E. of Monkton, Md.; and nine grandchildren.

A Memorial Mass will be offered at 4 p.m. March 15 in the Chapel of the Sacred Heart at Canisius High School, 1180 Delaware Ave. Mrs. Curley donated her body to the University at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences.

Photo Report

By Janice Smith

Early last year John and I were asked to be the co-chairmen of the AAFA Photo Committee. We followed in the footsteps of Jack Kinabrew, who did an excellent job of organizing, cataloging, and storing the photos in archival safe folders. We spent a considerable amount of time prior to the Pleasanton meeting going through the photographs and documentation in the AAFA Photo Archives. The data was loaded into a new computer database that could be merged with other AAFA databases. New lists were generated and were made available to those attending the Pleasanton meeting. For security purposes, the photos are currently stored in a safety deposit box when they are not in use.

Prior to the meeting in Pleasanton, Gil added an insert to the 1997 Spring issue of AAFA ACTION that encouraged everyone to send in photographs. When the photographs first started coming, it was like Christmas! We want to say thank you very much to all of you who have sent in photographs of your family and your ancestors.

Why are your photographs so exciting? First of all, it's great to associate faces with names of AAFA members. Second, it's a thrill to open the envelopes and see the faces of Alford ancestors—the people we're working hard to learn more about. Some members have sent copies of many pictures of their ancestors as well as some newspaper articles about them. Others have sent original pictures of their ancestors. Recently we received a tintype! These pictures are being preserved and kept for others to order copies and to use for publication in the quarterly. If you don't have a picture of your ancestor, perhaps you will be able to find a copy in the AAFA Photo Collection.

Take advantage of AAFA's efforts to preserve photos. One of my cousins threw all of his mother's Alford family pictures away. They just didn't mean anything to him. Don't let this happen to your family pictures! And it won't if you store a copy with AAFA.

We are grateful for all of the pictures that have been submitted. We hope that more of you will be willing to go through your pictures and have them copied or have a color laser copy made. We're interested in photos of current Alfords, AAFA members, and Alfords ancestors. It would be fantastic to have a picture of every member of AAFA. Together let's set a goal: someday there will be some pictures of every family branch represented in AAFA.

As of this writing, there are well over 600 photos in the Collection. If you are interested in a particular person, we would be happy to check and see if we have a picture of that person. We encourage you to send AAFA copies of your photos. Be sure to identify the people in the photo, and provide as much other information as you can: the date and place it was taken, how the people in the photo are related, and how they're related to you. For your convenience, a photo form is included as an insert in this quarterly. Feel free to contact us at the following home or e-mail address, or telephone number.

Kentucky Bible and Family Records

By Lynn D. Shelley, AAFA #484

The following excerpts are from published sources and pertain to Bible records of Kentucky families.

Do you have an Alford family Bible, Bible records or a Bible from another family with Alford information? Is there genealogical information you can share with AAFA members by publishing those names and dates? Be sure to include the publishing information in the front of the Bible, especially the publication date, as well as who the Bible originally belonged to and who has it now. If you know someone else who is in possession of such a Bible, please let us know or try to encourage that person to share the Alford information in the Bible with us. AAFA would love to have xerox copies of the pertinent pages, but a transcript is also most welcome.

“FALLIS BIBLE

Bible and loose papers in Bible in possession of Mrs. Joe Mooneyham, Cornersville, TN. Submitted by Carolyn McAdams.

Death notice from paper [in loose papers?]:

Henry Hillard (Tobe) Fallis, 72, died at home of daughter Mrs. Sara Fay Fallis Alford in Lexington, KY, on Dec. 5. He was reared in Marshall Co. TN. He was a Blacksmith at Moorsville, Bryant Station, Roberson Fork and other places until he moved to KY. Buried Lexington, KY, Dec. 7. Survived Mrs. Lee Alford and two granddaughters Audrey and Nola Lee Alford.” [Newspaper date missing and not included in obit.]

AAFA NOTES: Henry H. Fallis/Follis died Dec. 5, 1942, in Fayette County, KY. Henry Fallis’ death date was determined from the Kentucky Vital Statistics file found on the Internet at <<http://ukcc.uky.edu/~vitalrec/>>; however there he is listed as Henry H. FOLLIS and daughter Sara Fay is also listed as Sarah FOLLIS for both birth records of her daughters. Sara Fay (1895–May 12, 1976) married Leroy/Lee J. Alford (May, 1888–May 2, 1955), son of Joseph W. and Enola B. Foley Alford of Fayette Co. KY, about 1917. They had two daughters as listed above—Audrey Doris born July, 19, 1918, and Enola Lee born July 19, 1920. In 1920 they were living in Fayette County with Lee J.’s parents. Joseph W. was a descendant of Jacob Alford and Nancy Hunter, who came to what became Kentucky from Virginia about 1789.

“DOUTHITT-DUGAN FAMILY RECORDS. These are some dates written on the blank pages of a scrapbook made by Mrs. Ella Dugan Douthitt of Daviess Co. KY in the late 1800’s and early 1900’s. The book was originally the lodge book of the Monument Lodge No. 483. Mrs. Douthitt’s father-in-law was a member of this lodge. The book now (in 1968) belongs to Mrs. Thurman Elliott of Owensboro, KY. [Only records of ALFORD connections are listed—AAFA has the entire record.]

FAMILY RECORD OF JAMES C. DUGAN

BIRTHS

James Columbus Dugan son of John and Mary Dugan was born April 25, 1832.

John William Kimbley [Alford] son of Joseph and Glarvina Alford was born July 29th, 1874.”

AAFA NOTES: This is a Daviess

County, KY, family that started with Joseph Alford who first appeared there in 1860 although he and wife Mary/ Polly were born in KY and were enumerated in Marion County in 1850. In 1860 they had five children but the eldest sons present in 1850 (William H., 22, and John H. 19, are missing). The rest of the family is missing from the 1870 census, but this is probably where Joseph and Glarvina married so they probably were just missed or can be found under an unusual spelling variation. WHO WAS THIS JOSEPH'S PARENTS? He was born in Marion Co. KY (c1814) according to vital statistics (listed under son John's birth) microfilm for Daviess County. Both Joseph (known as Clayton) and John Kimbley (known as Kimbley) lived and died in Daviess County. Joseph Clayton (went by Clay) married second to Lula Mae Foster by 1916.

“WALKER-ALFORD BIBLE

Jr. of Harrodsburg, KY. THE HOLY BIBLE, Holman's Edition, Philadelphia, A.J. Holman and Co., No. 1222 Arch Street, 1887.

MARRIAGES

Henry H. Walker Sr. and Alice Edwards were married Oct. 7th 1867 at Cincinnati. G.A. Alford and Louisa J. Hendren were married Dec. 2nd, 1869. Tom McMurry and Dessie Alford were married Dec. 4th, 1889.

BIRTHS

Henry H. Walker Jr. was born June 22nd, 1874. Myrtle Alford was born Oct. 20, 1878. Henry H. Walker, Sr. was born July 23, 1846. Alice Edwards was born April 28, 1845. G.A. Alford was born July 7, 1844. Louisa J. Hendren was born Dec. 8, 1850. Dessie Alford was born June 26, 1873. Onias A. Alford was born Aug. 14, 1880.

[Are the following children of H. H. Walker, Jr. and Myrtle Alford?]

Willie E. Walker was born July 8, 1868. Voorhies Walker was born Nov. 26, 1869. Martin E. Walker was born Jan. 31, 1879.

DEATHS

Louisa J. Alford departed this life Nov. 20th, 1881. Henry H. Walker Sr. departed this life Jan. 26, 1883. Willie E. Walker departed this life Sept. 11th, 1868. Henry H. Walker Jr. died Feb. 29, 1908. Martin Edwards Walker Sr. died Oct. 19, 1946. Voorhies Walker died May 21, 1956.”

AAFA NOTES: Additional death dates

found in KY Vital Statistics File:

Alice E. Walker died Feb. 9, 1935, Mercer Co. KY, Death Cert. 05090

Myrtle A. Walker died Oct 11, 1965, McCracken Co. KY, Death Cert. 23651

No Dessie McMurry found and no Thomas McMurry died in Mercer Co.

Martin E. Walker died in Franklin Co. although he was a resident of Mercer Co.—Death Cert. 21366.

Voorhies Walker died in Mercer Co.—Death Cert. 10680

One assumes looking at the names in this Bible that it is the Bible of Myrtle Alford and husband Henry H. Walker, Jr. since they are the first births recorded. That seems to indicate that Myrtle was a daughter of Granville and Louisa Hendren Alford and that Dessie and Onias A. Alford were her siblings. The three Walkers listed after these must have been her children. The 1880 census for Granville and Louisa (Mercer Co., E.D. 134, Sheet 20, Lines 28-33) have two daughters for this couple—Emma, born 1873, and Sallie, born 1879/1880. These could be Dessie, but is Sallie the same person as Myrtle? Onias was born in August, probably after the 1880 census. In 1900 Myrtle is living in Lexington (Fayette Co.) with a cousin Henry Bush. She married H.H. Walker, Jr., there later in the year. In 1900 her father and stepmother, Sarah J.

_____ are living in Mercer County with her siblings, Onias, Alma, William P. and Granville (Jr.?). If Louisa Hendren Alford died in 1881, then Alma, William P. and Granville (Jr.) are Myrtle's half-siblings.

A number of names written inside book, including: Larkin Epperson - John Richard Beegle - Lucinda M. Beegle - John Alford - Elizabeth Alford - Mary Beegle, January 15, 1834.”

AAFA NOTES: According to the Bible record, Greenup Jenkins married Mary Ellen _____ who was born March 4, 1812. WAS SHE AN ALFORD? AAFA does not recognize this family. Several Jenkins-Alford marriages occurred in Kentucky in the families of Jacob and Charles Alford of Mercer and Garrard Counties. But if John and Elizabeth Alford were a couple, these KY families don't fit. If anyone can make the connection here, please let us know.

Everett Bunton Graham was born Jan. 17, 1887, died Mar. 23, 1967, married Mayme Alford”

AAFA NOTES: Mayme was born

Nov. 1892, the daughter of W.S. Alford and wife Sarah Belle _____. We do not have a date for Mayme's marriage but it must have occurred between 1900 and 1910. In 1900 she was living with her family in Washington, Co. KY, and in 1910, her parents are living in Mercer County and she is not among those in the household. Mayme Alford Graham died May 21, 1983, in Mercer County, KY, at age 90. W.S. (William Seymour) Alford's family is believed to descendants of Jacob and Nancy Hunter Alford.

[Records from a BROWN Family Bible were included in this Alford Bible. No connection has been found with this family. Does anyone know of a Brown connection to this family? AAFA has the additional pages—dates range from 1805-1896.]

AAFA NOTES: This is the Bible of Margaret Mitchell Alford who was the wife of Cary F. Alford, son of Nathaniel Alford and America Smith, and grandson of Charles Alford, who was probably the first Alford in Kentucky. Mag and Cary were the parents of only two children, a son who became the Lt. Gov. of KY from 1891-1895 (Mitchell Cary Alford—see article this issue), and a daughter Alice who married Asa McConathy. The McConathys are living with Mitchell Alford in 1900 in Fayette County and have the following children: Asa, Jr. born 1874, Margaret born 1877, Cary (girl) born 1881, Lillie Mae born 1883 and Pinkie Lou born 1886. Mitchell never married so there are no descendants of this family named Alford. Most of this family is buried in the Lexington Cemetery in Lexington, KY (Fayette Co.).

Jennie [Alford], wife of William E. Blackburn [Jr.] died 3 Sept. 1875, leaving a little son twelve days old to comfort the desolate heart of the Father and to the care of Him who promises never to fail the Orphan."

AAFA NOTES: Jennie Alford was the daughter of Smith and Columbia _____ Alford, born about 1856, probably in Garrard County, KY. In 1870 her family was living in Midway, Woodford Co., KY, and it was here that she met her future husband and where they resided until her early death less than a year after her marriage. From HISTORY OF KENTUCKY AND KENTUCKIANS, Vol. III. E. Polk Johnson, editor, New York: Lewis Publishing Co., 1912, pages 1270-1271 (Woodford County), where there is a biographical article of Smith A. Blackburn, M.D., it is learned that the son who was only 12 days old at the death of his mother (Smith Alford Blackburn, born 22 Aug 1875), not only survived but became quite prominent as a physician, obtaining his medical degree in 1899 from Columbian University [now known as George Washington University] in the city of Washington, D.C. and practicing as a physician in Louisville and then in Versailles, KY, in his home county of Woodford. His father married again after Jennie Alford's death to a Miss Ada Bibb of Arkansas, but they had no children. Dr. Smith Blackburn married Laura Browning in 1906 and in 1912, they had one daughter, Henrietta Blackburn. Jennie Alford was the great-granddaughter of Charles Alford, who was probably the first Alford in Kentucky.

AAFA NOTES: This Bible obviously belonged to Nancy Alford and her husband John Quilla Alford, who was her first cousin. According to the introductory paragraph the Bible passed to Mary E. Alford's daughter, Mrs. Samuel Myers. It is not known whether she is identical to the Minnie Lee Dunn, born in 1875 or whether there were other daughters whose names are not found in the Bible records. Mary E. was first married to Alexander Bland and second (before 1875?) to Charles Edward Dunn but AAFA does not have the date of the second marriage. Was she buried as Mary Bland or Mary Dunn?? Milton Rice was first married to Josephine M. Alford and several years after her death, he married her sister Sarah Martha "Mattie" Alford. Henry Clay died as an infant and Jesse, Rosa Ann, and Frank W. never married. Rosa Ann died Feb. 23, 1925, but it is not known why her death is not listed in the Bible or when the Bible burned. All of this family are descendants of Jacob and Nancy Hunter Alford. ❖

Mitchell Alford, KY Lt. Gov.

By Lynn D. Shelley, AAFA #484

Mitchell Cary Alford was born July 10, 1855, on a farm in Fayette Co., Kentucky. His parents were Cary F. Alford and Margaret Mitchell. Cary F. Alford was the son of Nathaniel Alford and America Smith of Garrard Co. and grandson of Charles Alford, who was probably the first Alford in what became the state of Kentucky.

Mitchell's mother was a native of Fayette Co. and the daughter of Boswell Mitchell and Susanna Robinson. The old Mitchell homestead, Walnut Grove, was her home. His parents were married March 28, 1850, in Fayette Co. Mitchell and his sister Susan Alice Alford, born May 29, 1851, were their only children. Susan married Asa McConathy. Mitchell Cary Alford never married. For more information on his sister, parents and grandparents, see the article on "Kentucky Bible and Family Records from Published Sources" elsewhere in this issue.

Mitchell was educated in public schools of Fayette Co. and entered the University of Kentucky from which he graduated in 1877. The following year he entered the University of Kentucky Law Department and graduated with honors in 1879. Within a year, he began practicing law, forming a partnership with a former college friend, Zachariah F. Smith, Jr. This firm continued for seven years under the name Alford and Smith until the death of Mr. Smith.

For the next five or six years, Mitchell was an associate of Judge Matt Walton, and after that he engaged in a private law practice. In April of 1881, he was appointed Master Commission of the Fayette Circuit Court, an office which he held until 1887. In January 1882 he was elected Judge of the Recorder's Court, serving in this office for two years. He was re-elected to the same office but resigned and ran for State Senator for the Lexington District. He won this election and served as State Senator from 1884-1888, the youngest Senator at that time.

In 1891, he was nominated without opposition for Lieutenant Governor on the ticket of John Young Brown and won this election. He served under Brown as Lt. Governor from Sept. 2, 1891 to Dec. 10, 1895. During his last year in this office, he was strongly urged to enter the race for Governor, but withdrew as a candidate by June of 1895.

A Democrat, he was Chairman of the State Democratic Committee for several years and was President of the State League of Democratic Clubs. He was the first president of the First National Bank of Middlesboro and one of its promoters and organizers. He was also a stockholder and long-time treasurer of the Phoenix Hotel Company of Lexington. He lived in Lexington, KY, in his High Street home which was in the 1940's part of the Kentuckian Hotel. He died of pneumonia in a Lexington hospital on Dec. 9, 1914. He is buried in the Lexington Cemetery, Section H, Lot 44.

Kentucky Death Index, 1911–1993

By Lynn Shelley, AAFA #484

The source of these death records is the Kentucky Office of Vital Statistics which maintains birth and death certificates from 1911 when it was created and marriage certificates from 1958. Information from the KY death index files can be downloaded from two sources: <<http://www.ancestry.com>> (Ancestry's web site) and <<http://ukcc.uky.edu/~vitalrec/>>. We would like to thank Robin Sterling for downloading most of this information.

Photocopies of these records (1911-1946 ONLY) may be obtained from Pam C. Durstock, 3122 Millakin Place, Burlington, KY 41105 (E-mail: <durp@one.net>). Include name of the deceased, date of death (1911-1946), age at death, county of death, death volume number and certificate number. Also include a SASE (one envelope per 10 certificates, 1 stamp per 5) and a check for $3 per certificate made payable to Pam Carey Durstock. All necessary information is provided below, but only place of death and death volume are necessary, not the county of residence or the first volume number (state volume) .

Certified copies of death certificates (1911-present) are available for $7 each (check made out to KENTUCKY STATE TREASURER) with the following information: name of deceased, county of residence, and date of death. Mail requests to:

Office of Vital Statistics
275 East Main Street
Frankfort, KY 40601

The office also accepts orders by phone (502-564-4212) from 8 AM to 3 PM (Eastern time) with a valid credit card for $5 service charge and $6 per certificate.

Information included in the columns below: name (surname ALFORD unless otherwise indicated); age at death (1 mo may mean anything from a few hours or a few months and in one of the sources was given as U/1 meaning under one year of age); date of death; place of death (state abbreviation or KY and the first four letters of the county name; MCRA = McCracken); and place of residence (county, state or country ONLY if different from place of death); state volume where information is found and death volume (last two digits of year of death) as well as the death certificate number. If there is a question mark, the information was missing from the index. In the case of 1993 deaths and deaths in a state other than KY, there is no state volume because none was given.

We would like to encourage all AAFA members to get all available death certificates for family members. REMEMBER, death certificates contain a lot of information not given here: date and place of birth of the deceased, marital status, occupation, parents' names and birthplaces (possibly even mother's MAIDEN name); time and cause of death; possibly date and place of burial, funeral home, as well as the name and address of the informant or person giving the information. This is especially important in determining how accurate the information given may be (what was the informant's relationship to the deceased??). Not all deaths were registered, not all certificates were submitted to state officials, and not all spellings and dates may be entirely accurate (plus computer input errors), so just because your ancestor's name is not here does not necessarily mean he or she did not die in KY between 1911 and 1993. Be sure to check local county records for information that may not have been registered with the state.

IF YOU HAVE ANY VITAL RECORD CERTIFICATES FOR YOUR "ALFORD" ANCESTORS, PLEASE SEND COPIES TO AAFA!

“Alfords” in the 1850 Missouri Census

Prepared by Alicia Houston and the Census Project Team

This census report is a product of the AAFA census team. The initial list of names to be extracted was prepared from published census indexes and, in some cases, supplemented by unindexed entries. The everyname extraction was performed using the microfilm as a source—then verified for completeness and accuracy.

The following data is not intended to reflect either the “true” facts or what descendant families believe to be the facts. It is also not guaranteed to be without error. Nevertheless, every attempt has been made to provide a complete and faithful representation of the information recorded on the original enumeration forms.

The categories on each line appear in the following order: name, sex, age in years or months, color if recorded, birth place, *MSR, occupation, and property value.

* There may be any of three entries:

M = married within the year

S = attended school within the year

R = can't read or write (or just W if can read but not write)

Birthplace is shown with the approved postal abbreviations for states in the U.S.

The association acknowledges the efforts of Nancy Dietrich, Andy Leath, Katherine Black, the late Lewis Emerson Alford, Susan Busby (not AAFA), Alicia Houston, and Gil Alford in the preparation of this report.

Booklist Additions

The Booklist is a compilation of references to Alford's and spelling variations contained in books and some periodicals. Not every library has every book that contains information about Alford's. If we all work together to extract Alford data from books located across the country and centralize this information, more data is available to more Alford researchers.

Entries are organized by state and county. Each entry lists the book name and publication data followed by the name in bold print of every Alford listed on the pages that AAFA has. The page number where the name is found is listed next followed by a brief description (and sometimes the complete listing) of what information about the person is contained on the page.

Copies of any pages listed on the Booklist are available for an SASE to AAFA members (send enough postage and an appropriately sized envelope) and for ten cents per page plus an SASE to non-members from the AAFA Librarian: Nancy Alford Dietrich, P.O. Box 1838, Westport, WA 98595.

A printed copy of the 90+ page Master Booklist may be ordered for $5 (members) and $6 (non-members) from the AAFA Treasurer: Doris Alford Vetri, 981 Larkspur Place, N., Mount Laurel, NJ 08054. The complete Master Booklist, minus the the most recent entries, is also available on the Publications page of AAFA's Web site:

<http://www.alford.com/alford/aafa/homepage.html>

If you'd like to contribute to the Booklist, photocopied pages from books may be sent to AAFA. Don't forget the title page, pertinent introductions and other interpretive material, index pages showing Alford's and variations, and any other pages you think will help understand the contents. Be sure to check for the spelling variations of ALFRED, ALLFORD, ALVORD, HALFORD, OLFORD, etc.

Census indexes and cemetery lists are generally not included on this list. These will be handled by their respective AAFA committees. You may send copies from such books and we will pass them on to the committees.

Thanks to Ruth McNinch, AAFA #368, and Lynn Shelley, AAFA #484, for extracting and typing the information from pages sent by members.

More Photos from 1997 Meeting in Pleasanton

Dovie Jean Alford, #110 TX, Evonne #130, and her husband Jim Alford, #115 TX, visit with their California cousin Donald Alford, #515 (seated) and his wife Colette. Dovie, Evonne, and Donald descend from Halcut Alford born 1788 in Georgia. These three members represented the 36 AAFA members who descend from that branch. Jim is one of four AAFA members who descend from Lodwick Alford born 1812 in Georgia.

Cousins Elizabeth T. Mohle, #424 TX and David Gaston Alford, #503 TX visited at the reception on Friday night. Like the family group on the next page, they are descendants of Needham Alford born 1789 in NC. Elizabeth and Gaston both live in San Antonio, but they had never met until AAFA brought them together in California!

Everyone in this family group descends from Needham Alford born 1789 in NC (from the JAM687VA line). Back row: Lori and Owen Alford, #973 CA, with daughter Rachel; Mary Foy Alford, mother of Owen, Tom, Kathy and Howard; Tom Alford, #974 CA; Kathy Alford, #644 CA; and Howard Alford, #971 CA, and his wife Teresa. The children in front are Maryanne, Jesse, and Jacob, daughter and sons of Lori and Owen.

Kate and Robert Hollingsworth, #772 MS. Robert is descended from Edward Alford, born 1792 in NC. He was not only the only representative of that branch at the meeting (of the 35 EDW792NC members), he and Kate were also the only members who attended from Mississippi!

Phil and Nell Alford, #871 CA, visit with Barbara and Frank Alford, #879 CA. Twins Phil and Frank descend from Lewis Alford, born 1814 in VT—some members of their family who also attended the meeting are shown in the photo on the next page.

Robert D. Alford, #197 TX, shows off the door prize he won on Saturday night. The framed AAFA badge is in full color and is a popular item at the AAFA store. Robert is the only AAFA member descended from CLA born 189_ in GA. A member since 1989, he's still hoping for a breakthrough on his line!

Seven of the eleven AAFA members who are descendants of Lewis Alford, born 1814 in VT, joined us in Pleasanton! They are Willie Mae and Harold Hill, #878 CA, Barbara and Frank Alford, #879 CA, and Frank's twin brother Phil Alford, #871 CA, and their sister Jeannine Alford Megert, #723 CA, Nell Alford (Phil's wife), Phil and Nell's daughter Jeanette Alford Lee, #650 CA, Alfred Megert, Frank's son Philip D. Alford, #668 CA, and his wife Sandra, and Ann and Vince Callaway, #914 AZ. In front are Amanda and Jessica Lee, daughters of Jeanette Lee.

Guest Bill McKenzie and Janet A. Hemby, #832 TX, and Don and Joan Alford, #059 NV. Janet and Don are descendants of David Alford born 1785 in Virginia, two of eighteen AAFA members descended from that branch.

Ferman and Connette Halford Blalock, #381 CA. Connette is the only AAFA member who descends from David Halford born 1792 (David was the son of John Halford born 1765 in VA).

R.M. "Dick" and Connie Alford, #633 ID. They are one of three AAFA members who live in Idaho, and Dick is the only AAFA member who is descended from Orson Alford born 1806 in NY (from the BEN619EN line).

Robert Pangburn, #929 CA, and his brother Frank Pangburn, #868 CA, are descendants of Landy Alford, born 1804 in Virginia. Robert and Frank are two of the three AAFA members who descend from Landy.
