

LIST OF "ALFORDS" IN THE 1860 CENSUS OF SOUTH CAROLINA

[This was previously published in AAFA ACTION #62 Fall 2003.]

Political divisions commonly called county were usually called district in South Carolina until a change in the state constitution in 1869.

Arranged by county, township, page, house, and family.

Column headings not meant to line up exactly over the data but rather to give position relationship
