1. Frank Alford #1205 b. about 1820, Sweden, m. in Sweden, Hannah _____ #1206, b. Jun 7 1827, Sweden, d. Nov 23 1908, Jasper Co., MO, buried: Twin Grove Cem., Jasper Co., MO. Frank died about 1870/71, West Joplin, Jasper Co., MO, buried: Fairview Cemetery, Joplin, Jasper Co. MO.

1870 census data (see below) indicates the family left Sweden in or after 1864.

Frank was killed in a lead mine near Lone Elm, West Joplin, MO and is buried in what was Fairview Cemetery in Joplin. "later they wanted to put a road thru where he was buried - some people had their relatives dug up and buried elsewhere. Frank Alford's family did not hear about folks being asked to remove bodied. So he was left and the road went over his grave."

Census: Aug 13, 1870, Jasper Co., MO Carthage Post Office, Marion Township, page 88, house 543, family 543 (name spelled "Ollfoot" all born Sweden): Frank 50, Hannah 48, Alfred 20, Augusta 15, Axal 12m, Christian 9 and John 6.

By 1880 the surname was Alford on John Axel's census but Olford on Hannah's and in 1900 Cherokee County, Kansas and 1910 Ottawa County, Oklahoma it was Alford.

Some descendants, based on oral family history, show that the parents were Alfred Alhford and Hanna Jogansdotter but have children named Augusta, Axel, John, Christina, and Alfred. No Frank is mentioned in the descendants account. Specific dates came from the descendants. Alfred was supposedly lost when their ship sank as it arrived near the U.S.

Hannah: It is assumed she died in the same county where she lived and is buried.

Augusta died Mar 2 1929, Bellaire, Harris Co. TX. Descendants show her born in Sweden which seems unlikely when her mother was in Missouri for the 1870 census. In the 1880 census she and her parents were enumerated with widow Hannah Alford in Jasper Co, MO. The census shows that she was born in MO, her father in MO and her mother in Sweden.
