CENSUS:

June 29, 1870, Talladega Co. AL Page 558, house 1, family 1. Enumerated with Alley W. Johns 65 GA farmer, Jane Johns 64 KY, Robert N. Johns 24 AL, Mary C. Johns 25 AL. James C. Alford 24 GA farmer, Samantha Alford 31 AL (at home).

1880 Talladega Co. AL, page 6, J. C. 34 GA, Sarah 30 AL, Lucius Vaughn 9 AL, Kinchen 8, Robert 7, Percy 4 and Orma 2.

1900 Childersburg, Talladega Co., AL James C. 54 GA, Sarah 55 AL, Omer 23 AL, Bennet 15 AL, Ola 12 AL, Mattie Smith 56 AL aunt.

1910 Childersburt, Talladega Co., AL: Sarah 60 AL, Mattie Smith 65 AL sister, Ola Cull 27 AL daughter, Florian Cull 28 AL son-in-law.

There is no proof that "Samantha Johns" was James' first wife. However, James and Samantha Alford, as described here, were enumerated with the Johns family in 1870 Talledega County and she was listed as "at home." We are listing her here as a prime candidate for the heretofore unknown wife. If she was a Johns daughter then she had a brother named "Robert" which might have influnced the naming of her second son. - The first having been named for James' family.

Sarah had a son, Percy, by her first marriage and he was enumerated with the Alford family in some censuses.

The following is partial text of a letter received from Timothy W. Alford AAFA#0476 dated November 9, 1993. "As far as my Alford ancestry is concerned I'm pretty sure that I have found my great-great-grandfather Alford. His name is spelled variously as Kinchen, Kitchen and even Kezchen. My grand-father Bennett Allae Alford, Sr. refers to him in a letter dated 12 Feb. 1955 in which he states that he saw and even visited his grandfather and his family in Rutledge, Georgia. In another letter dated 9 Dec 1953 he clears up the confusion about his father's children: his mother, Sarah Elizabeth Smith, married James Clay Alford. She had one son by a previous marriage, Lucius Vaughn. James Clay had two sons by a previous marriage, Kinchen W. and Robert Alford (the W. stands for Warren and Robert was known as Bob)."
