

Descendants of William Alford of Horry Co., SC, b. about 1760

This genealogy is a work in progress and is expected to contain some errors and omissions. It includes five generations the more recent generations were deliberately omitted to protect the privacy of most of the living. We will be updating the genealogy periodically and will notify AAFA members of the updates in the quarterly.

This genealogy contains quotes from the work of Johnny O. Sarvis, Jr. (208. Debbie Lee<sup>4</sup>, 68. Joseph Preston<sup>5</sup>, 10. Arnold Bethel<sup>4</sup>, 3. Daniel<sup>3</sup>, 2. John<sup>2</sup>, 1. William<sup>1</sup>). Sometime after November 1970 he compiled a work called Family History. A copy was furnished to AAFA by member #0703 James Little Alford. It is not known that it was ever published beyond copies for local distribution. Several efforts over the years to reach Johnny Sarvis have failed. Several segments of his work have been imported into this one and each will be credited accordingly. AAFA notes in square [ ] brackets are inserted to clarify some of the items. The following two paragraphs are on the title page:

The family currently bearing the name Alford in the United States arises from a long history of educated and well cultured family life. As of 1908, there were 11 family trees in England: The other families had left England around 1640 and account for all the Alford s currently living in the United States. Of those still living in England, the family contains the Honorary Canon of Bristol, the Dean of Canterbury, several Bishops, preachers, teachers, and authors. __ Johnny Sarvis Some of the above was probably concluded from the work of Rev. Josiah Alford but the conclusions are not correct. AAFA posted the text of Rev. Alford s complete 1908 work at [www.alfordassociation.org/afn.htm.]

For the sake of future generations, I believe it is necessary to record all available history of our family. __Johnny Sarvis. [AAFA certainly agrees with this and has included much of his work here.]

More from the work of Johnny Sarvis:

Lodowick Alford - The son of John Aldord, this man was one of the most successful of the Alford family ever to live in the United States. He was born around 1700 A.D. He was married 3 times (presumably due to death) and had 19 children. He and his family were responsible for spreading the Alford name into the Southern United States during the Mid-1700 s. __Johnny Sarvis [Records of St. Peter s Parish Church, New Kent Co., VA and the will of his brother Julius Alford, prove that Lodwick was the son of James Alford not John, The number of wives and children is still uncertain.]

While a youngster Lodowick left Boston society and moved into North Carolina, then simply called Carolina. In Edgecombe County, he acquired over 4000 acres by the time he was 61 yrs. old. __Johnny Sarvis [There is no evidence that the Alford s of Boston and those of Virginia were connected. In fact DNA results now prove they are not. Lodwick spent most of his first 30 years in Virginia as proved by church records. He moved to North Carolina from Virginia--not Boston.]

William Alford Sr. - This is the Alford line that our people in Horry County, descended from. Some of his brothers and half-brothers crossed into Horry in the late 1700 s. William was the son of Lodwick and Elizabeth Alford. In the will, recorded in Conway Courthouse in 1848 (*see copy) it states that the 300 acres on Maple Swamp originally was granted to William Alford Sr., probably because of some service to the crown. William lived his entire life in N.C. __Johnny Sarvis

*The following is a transcript of the document mentioned in the previous paragraph. (To see an extensive collection of documents collected over a considerable period of time, visit www.alfordassociation.org/COLLECTIONS/lead.html.) The copy provided contained no date, place, or otherwise official references. AAFA has no knowledge of the source of this document but knows an identical copy has been circulated among descendants for years.

Wm. Alford father of John Alford who married Dolly Carrell__ when Wm. Alford died he left but John Alford the only lawful heir when John Alford died he left Pricilla Norris (Wm. Norris) in NC __ Duke W. Alford, Doty Allen wife of Robert Allen, Mary Long decd, but was wife of Joshua Long of NC__ children names: Martha Long, Elizth Long, John Long, Susannah Long, Mary Eliza & Joshua Long. ----- 300 acres on Baxter Branch. branch waters of Maple Swamp and to be originally granted to Wm. Alford decd. [AAFA knows of no way to identify the William Alford mentioned in this document.]

William Alford Jr. - Little is known about this man, other than he was born in 1775 and inherited the 300 acres on Maple Swamp. He lived his entire life in N.C. __Johnny Sarvis [While this may be true, AAFA has no knowledge of this person; however, if we disregard the comment about NC it is possible he is the William age 50-60 in the 1840 Marion Co. SC census. There is not enough documentation to make a connection.]

The following are Johnny Sarvis s closing comments from the 14th page of his work. It may seem out of place here but we did not want to put it at the end where it may have been lost to the public in one of the truncated generations.

One sure sign that you have a good bit of Alford in you is if you re born with this, almost uncontrollable urge, to fish and hunt, even the women will - dig bait- and grab an old cane pole if the wind is right.

I ve tried hard to get this history as accurately as possible and I hope I haven t offended anyone by being so truthful, but I can t see writing a history unless you tell the truth. I do hope that the younger generation in each of the families (of the 6 children of Mantha and Arnold), will sit down with the older ones and record all that they can remember before it is too late. I know I intend to record all that my uncles Meddie and Ebbie, as well as Mama and aunt Ratha, can remember about Preston and Isabella.

There are numerous people that helped me in one way or another, and all put with my unending questions. I would like to thank Eula, Eloise, Brant, Mother, Aunt Ratha, Grover, and Eva Alford Squires. I especially would like to thank Mr. Harvey Holt, who, is just a world of information about Horry and if anyone doing a history ever gets stuck, it would pay them to search him out. I can t say enough about my uncles, Meddie and Ebbie, who always tells the truth about the old people, whether its good or bad. I have enjoyed their stories since I was a boy and they make Preston seem bigger than life. I hope I can get it all written down, even the story of Preston having a shootout with some people about his children. I just feel like every boy should be fortunate enough to have uncles such as mine. I am really proud that I can say my mother was an Alford. —Johnny Sarvis, Jr.

NOTE: References to South Carolina Obituaries refer to the compilation of all obituaries for Alford's deceased in South Carolina, prepared for AAFA's 2008 meeting in Columbia, SC. It is posted to AAFA's website: <http://www.alfordassociation.org/obit.html>.

1. William Alford #3664 b. about 1760, Carolinas, m. _ #3665. The previously reported and apparent erroneous birth date of 1735 date may have come from confusion with the William Alford who was in 1790 Spartanburg Co., supposed to be the father of a John Alford b. about 1787 who moved to Florida.

+It is possible that this John Alford is the John B. Alford of this genealogy.

From Johnny Sarvis:

John B. Alford - Born in 1795, his mother s name is not known. The B. in his name could stand for BETHEL, which could have been his mother s maiden name. At any rate he married Dolly Carrell and they had three daughters, Priscilla who married William Norris and lived to be over 100 yrs. old. Mary, who married Joshua Long. Mary had died by 1848, but left children Mantha, Elizabeth, John, Susannah, Mary Elizabeth and Joshua. John B. and Dolly s other daughter Dotey married Robert Allen and moved from N.C. to Bayboro, where they raised a family. They named one son John and the other Bethel after her and Duke s daddy, John B., I suppose. Anyway Bethel Allen grew-up and later named his son Bethel, which strengthens my belief that John B. s mother s maiden name was probably, BETHEL. The only son of John B. and Dolly Carrell was our Duke.

The following was reported to be among the Horry Co. estate records; however, it was not included in the extensive collection of the late Mr. L.E. Alford:

Nov 23 1848 Copy in Probate Court Records - Horry Co., S.C. William Alford - father of John Alford, who married Dolly Carrell - when Wm died he left but John Alford the only lawful heir - when John Alford died he left Priscilla Norris (Wm Norris) in NC - Duke E. June 15, 1880, Bayboro, Horry Co., SC. Duke W. 69, wife Famzah 60, daughter Rebecca F. 23 and grandson Duke W. Norris 2.

From Johnny Sarvis:

Duke William Alford - Born in 1815, Duke married Feraby Johnson and in the 1830 s, they moved to Horry County in the Galivants Ferry area, where the Alford s were already settled, of which all were in some, way kin to Duke. Duke and his wife raised all of their children in the Galivants Ferry area, before moving to Bayboro, where the 1880 census records them as living. Duke died in the 1880 s and is buried at old Gethsemane Cemetery. In traveling around, one day I spoke with an old lady who told me she had heard all of her life that the old cemetery was originally the Alford cemetery. I believe at the latter time of the old church, a McQueen man owned the land of the cemetery and never would deed it to the church and consequently the church was moved. I do know that in 1903, there was a paper drawn up concerning the burial rights of the cemetery. W.G. (Gaston) Alford and his wife M. Emma Rogers signed the paper and W.F. (Frank) Holt was the magistrate.

In Plat book P, page 518, Feraby bought on 14 Nov 1851, from Daniel Johnston, 165 acres on Loosen Swamp for $10.00. In plat books T-page 398 and X-page 544, Duke sold on 25 Jun 1874, to G.T. Winders, 10 acres on Little Loosen Bay for $5.00, and G.T. sold it to Frank Burroughs & Co., about the same time. Duke also sold, on 20 Dec 1878, the other 150 acres in the fork of Loosen Swamp, to Burroughs & Co. for $50.00. Other land that Duke owned was never recorded, because there was no law requiring people to record their land.

After Duke died in the 1880 s, Feraby lived within walking distance of her son [Levi] Solomon Sol, until her death on 08 Oct 1893....

Rebecca Feraby shows living with Duke and Feraby in the 1880 census. After that I can find no trace of her. Drucilla, the baby, married Long John Cannon.

1870, Columbus Co., NC - William Norris seems to be there in the correct area, again age 60 and there are 4 empty spaces after his name. This was strange. Perhaps it might be an indication that they were not at home, and a nearby neighbor said that William Norris lives there with 4 other people, and the census taker thought he might get back there to fill in the blanks, but he never made it back.

1880, Columbus Co., NC, Persilla Norris is listed as 72, and she is a widow with her daughter Persilla Norris, age 35 and a nephew, Puerfy, age 23.

CENSUS

1860 Kingston, Horry Co., SC, dwelling #534 (William and his previous wife and 2 children, living 3 houses from Daniel W. Alford family and his second wife, Edith): W.L. Graham 37 farmer; Sarah M. 20; John C. 6/12; and Wm. B. 5. All were born in SC. It seems probable-age difference, listing of son William after son John, and age of John-that Sarah was actually his second wife, and William B. Graham was his son from a previous marriage. This William probably died before the 1870 census, when his father named another son William, b. about 1862.

1870 Bayboro, Horry Co., SC, dwelling #293: William Graham, age 25 farming; Eadey 33; Caperes 10, William 8, Franklin 4, and Dolley Ann 2. All were born in SC. John Caperes Graham was definitely the son of William's previous wife. Since we don't know the date of William and Edith's marriage or the death date of Sarah, we can't be sure of the mother of William, age 8, but it is possible that he is the son of Edith since she stated in 1900 that she had 6 children but only 4 were living, the other deceased child being Linnie.

1880 Bayboro (District 59), Horry Co., SC, family #121: William Graham 58 farmer; wife Eady 42; and children: John C. 21, Benjamin F. 15, Dollie A. 12, Rosa F. 9, daughter Lennie J. 7, and daughter Sinnie B. 3. All and their parents were born in SC.

1900 Bayboro (District 55), Horry Co., SC, dwelling #93: Edith Graham 64 b. Apr 1836 in SC, widow, 6 children, 4 living. Next door is her son Benjamin and his wife Alice.

1910 Bayboro (District 45), Horry Co., SC, family #256: Benjamin F. Graham 44, first marriage 14 years; wife Alice D. 42; and mother Edith 74 widow. All and their parents were born in SC.

From Johnny Sarvis:

The oldest girl, Edith and the brother Joshua disappeared from Horry County records in the 1860 s. Edith was born about 1836, and Joshua was born in 1845. There is a story handed down from my granddaddy and some of his brothers that they had an aunt and uncle, that had to leave Horry because they ran afoul of the law, supposedly for counterfeiting money, so they went to Texas and got in the oil business. I do know that there are Alford s in Texas, in the oil business, that are kin to us. When some Alford man died, about 1933, there was a famous Horry lawyer hired to investigate the inheritance. Some people still say we would have been in the OIL, if that lawyer had not gotten killed in a car wreck.

1900 Horry Co., SC: Arnold (no age), Cynthia 57 Jun 1842, Rufus 18 Oct 1881, Curley E. (f) 16 Apr 1882.

From Johnny Sarvis:

Arnold Bethel Alford - Born 09 Jan 1844 died 06 Aug ,1917. The third of five brothers, Amold grew up in the Galivants Ferry area. At the outbreak of the "WAR FOR STATES RIGHTS" , Arnold joined a group of young men to protect the "homefront". He is recorded as being a corporal in the "Lake Swamp Roughnecks", and Carmi Johnson (Johnson was spelled Johnston until after the WAR), who would later go to Virginia to fight, was recorded as the captain. (Carmi, the son of Meshach Johnson & Rebecca Rhea, was the dad of Laura, who married Thomas Skipper and dad of Benjamin Franklin Johnson who married Ida Floyd, so he was the granddad of Commander, Tom and Nip Johnson and Ruth Magnolia Skipper, who was Preston Alford's 1st wife. Carmi married Sarah Skipper. His sister, Isabella, married Noah Mayberry Mishoe, who was the grand-parents of Isabella Mishoe, Preston's 2nd wife).

Arnold enlisted in Co.E of the 26th S.C. Infantry, in the Charleston District on 18 Feb 1864. He fought with, as best as I can trace it, Gen. A.P. Hill's division, under a Gen. Hagood. He was captured on 03 Apr 1865 at the battle for Amelia Courthouse in Virginia, and remained in a prison at Point Lookout, Maryland until signing the oath of allegiance to the USA on 22 Jun 1865. The war had ended on 09 Apr 1865 but those "Grand old boys of the South" wouldn't sign the oath until they were absolutely sure that the South had "just gotten tired and decided to rest a spell.

There is a story of Arnold and some soldier buddies sitting on a fence during the close of the war and as Gen. Robert E. Lee, rode by one of them hollered and ask him what were they going to eat, at which time, Gen. Lee told them that he would share what he had with them. The Gen. then proceeded to dismount and pullout a handful of acorns. I know this is true because in my study and research of the war I have often read of this inci- dent, though no names of the soldiers are ever mentioned. On Arns release papers, he is described as 5 ft. 8 1/2. in. tall with brown hair, grey eyes and light complexion.

After being released, Arnold did, I suppose, as the rest of the soldiers, he walked home. His brother, Ash, had been captured on the 06 Apr 1865 and was released at Newport News Virginia on 26 Jun 1865. There is no record of their walking home together, but I know when they and all the vets returned, it was to a land that had once been plentiful and now, not only were they ragged, starving and crawling with lice and sick, they had to come home to nothing. . . . The oldest brother Sol fought from 1861 until May of 1865 with Gen Arthur M. Mannigault (man-nee-go)'s army on the Western Front in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and at the close of the war were paroled in N.C. Sol stayed in N.C. and on 22 Feb 1866, a lady that Sol was engaged to died, while giving birth to a little girl.

Ash came home and married Dorcas Cannon the daughter of Jesse and Tebitha Cannon. Ash and Dorcas's first child was born in Sept. of 1868. They owned a farm below Methodist Rehoboth on a road to the right, where Ash also had a cooper mill. He made knives repaired bell-clappers and other farm tools. They raised 8 boys and 3 girls. The 1900 census shows Ash, with his family living in Bayboro and after Ash died in 1909, the 1910 census shows Dorcas living with her son A.L. jr.

In the last part of 1866 or first part of 1867, Arnold married Mantha Cyntha Floyd (1910 census list her as Cyntha Alford) the daughter of Lewis Hugh Floyd and Sintha Strickland Lewis Hugh was the son of Lewis Floyd and grandson of James Floyd Sr. The Floyds settled Floyds "Mill" Township before 1800 they built the school and Methodist church. Many of the Floyds were ministers and all were big land owners. Through hard work and inheritance Lewis H. owned approx: 3300 acres of land at "Poor Hope Plantation" and "Cedar Creek Plantation". When Lewis Floyd died in 1844, he left "Cedar Creek" with 2400 acres and a very large, personal estate, also he left his youngest son, Lewis Hugh, as the administrator. He was unable to get his sisters and brothers to agree on a settlement, so he got the judge to auction it off where he bought 1900 acres of the land and a lot of the personal estate. The governor of S.C. had earlier granted land to Lewis H., so his home place was "Poor Hope". This is where Mantha as well as her brothers and sisters grew up. . . . The old house stood 150 yds. left of the old Floyd cemetery. . . . The Floyd cemetery was done away with in the 1930's and the graves were moved to Anderson Cemetery, off the highway 701 about Gurley. Mantha's mother, Sintha, was the daughter of Matthew and Jerusha Strickland, who were wealthy people.

Arn and Mantha's first child was born in Jan. of 1868, they named him after Mantha's dad, Lewis H., but for life he was called H. In the 1870 census Arn was not living in Horry and Mantha was living with her mom and dad with her son H. My granddad as well as other people, say that Arn and Mantha separated for some time after H. was born. He also told why they separated, but I think everyone should draw their own conclusion's as to why. Arn went to N.C, to visit relatives and to see Sol. Sol came back in the winter of 1870 and married Elizabeth Mincey, daughter of Jesse and Susannah Mincey. Sol gave the little girl, Maggie (Magdalene) to Duke and Feraby to keep. He and Elizabeth bought a farm at Moores' mill just above Mt. Trolley church and there they raised 4 boys and 5 girls, a set of twins died at birth. Maggie grew up and married Wingate Hilbourn, she died on 19 Nov 1948. She is buried at Old Gethsemane. Sol moved to Bayboro about 1901, he died in March of 1914 and is buried at Old Gethsemane, his wife is buried at Old Dorman graveyard. Sol's granddaughter, Eva Squires, lives 100 yds. from where Sol's old house was.

When Arn returned from N.C., he and Mantha reconciled. Their next child, William Gaston, was born in May of 1875. On 23 Dec 1875, Arn bought ,200 acres from Mantha's brother, Samuel Q. Floyd for $300.00. The land was on the south side of Lake swamp and on Joiner Swamp. George M. Johnson was the notary with J.W. Holliday and Benjamin Holt as the witnesses. If you go to the end of Alford road beside Woodrow and Eloise Perritts house look to the left toward an old barn and you can see where the old house sat that Arn and Mantha raised their children in. Tobacco became a really money crop about 1880, it replaced cotton, enabling southerners like Arn to make some real money. Along with farming Arn went in the turpentine business, so he and Mantha were prosperous. I say this because in 1878, Arn bought 111 acres in Socastee Township, which was being developed by Capt. Samuel S. Sarvis and J.E. Dusenbury, for $111.00 though I cannot find where he ever sold it. Arn and Mantha had a hand in the formation of Hall Branch School, it sat near the pond beside Woodrow and Eloise house. Benjamin Holt taught school there and Mr. Harvey Holt can remember going to school there with Elbert Alford who could "run like a deer".

Arnold is remembered as a man who had very little to say and for the most part, stayed to himself.

He evidently was a sharp businessman because on 17 May 1906, Arn managed to lease to J.E. Bryan the timber rights on the homeplace for 10 yrs., for the sum of $450.00, with Arn having the right to cut all the firewood he might need. Also J.E. Bryan could not cut the timber unless it was 12 in. thick 12 in. from the ground. Arn also sold, to his son Heywood, 50 acres of the homeplace for $300.00 and bought it back in 1910 for $300.00. On the 05 Nov 1910, Arn sold the entire homeplace to the Realty Loan & Insurance Co. of Darlington, for $150.00 down and the balance of $2600.00 to be paid 10 Jan 1911, Curley and Hattie Alford witnessed the paper. The Realty Co. paid the balance on the 19 Dec 1910, at which time Arn bought for $1500.00, 23 acres in Floyds township, 4 acres on fifteen mile bay and 24 1/2 acres north of the Sandy-Bluff Road to the corner of Athens Schoolhouse. On 26 Jan 1911, Mantha paid Arn $500.00 for the 23 acres in Floyds and the 4 acres on fifteen mile bay. Arn bought this same land back from Mantha's estate (she died in 1913) in 1914. R.A. and W.G. Alford witnessed the paper.

I feel sure Mantha inherited land from her dad, who died in Nov. of 1885, because I know that Heywood, Gaston, and Preston received a farm from their parents and I believe H. and Rufus did also, but again no land transfers were recorded at the courthouse. If you go to Cedar Creek, take the highway straight beside the church and in a couple of miles or less you'll see on your left, the small, white two story house that Arn and Mantha lived in until their death. Go about another mile and on your left you'll see the old church, look 200 yds. ahead and to the right and you'll see the old mercantile store. Take the road (dirt) to the right and follow it around for about a quarter of a mile and on your right in an opening you'll see Gaston's old house, barn and farm. Two or three hundred yds. farther and you're where granddaddy Preston had his "shootout" with 2 or 3 over their conduct toward his kids in about 1927. He broke his gun stock beside one of their heads, shot with the rest and went home, sat in the yard and let grandma Izzie pick the shot out of his back. Also look to left and you'll see where Preston's house was that burned under "mysterious" circumstances right after the shootout.

Mantha had a cancer on her wrist but she got over it. Later she had one come under her arm and this is the one she died of. Nina (Heywoods daughter) says she remembers her dad taking her and her sister to see their grandmama on a Sunday, right before she died, and she pulled them on the bed with her and hugged and picked at them a little. This was the last time she saw her. Arn died of a stroke in 1917, Preston signed his death certificate.

I can only guess, to some extent, as to the character of all these people because the only ones living that knew them is Brant and Harvey Holt. Brant says, that when his mother died he went to live with Mantha and Arn (his grandparents). He says he never heard Arn speak rough and he was good to Brant. He says Mantha was a good person to him but she "meant what she said." Mr. Holt gives Arn and Mantha a good name, as he does all the Alfords. He says they were Christian law-abiding people that didn't bother anyone nor did they walk away from trouble. I have no proof, yet, but it has been said that Mantha and Arnold had a lot to do with the formation of Old Gethsemane church.

From Johnny Sarvis:

Bedy married Bethel Sims Martin and they had Daniel and Cora, who married Ashley s son, John W. Alford. Arnold s baby brother, Daniel Thomas, married a lady named Rachel. They had 3 little girls, and in 1880 at the age of 29, D.T. was at Cannons Crossroads at a dispencery (where they sold alcohol) when he got into an argument and was killed. Rachel and the 3 girls lived with Duke and Feraby afterwards.

We found an Amelia and Joshua H. Word (Ward) in 1860 in Columbus Co., NC. Living with the family is Elizabeth and George Washington Spivey and 6 of their children. We had assumed this was Amelia Norris, daughter of Priscilla and William Norris, and she has her cousin living with her.

1860 Census for Columbus Co., NC: Joshua Ward 41, Farmer, with wife Amelia 35, and children David 12, A. J. 11, (Female), J. N. 9, (Male), J. B. 7, (Male), Frances 6, (Male), M. 5, (Male), Joseph 4, Andrew 2, and E. J. 4 months (Female). All were born in North Carolina.

There is another possible Amelia Norris of the right age in the county. She married William Boswell b. about 1814. The 1860 Census of Columbus Co., NC: Wm. Boswell 46, Amelia 31, and Celia 12. The 1870 Census of Columbus Co., NC: Milly Boswell 43 is living with Joseph and Molcey Sellers. The 1880 Census of Columbus Co., NC: William Boswell 65 with Milly 40.

On Ancestry World Tree there are arguments for Amelia Norris being the wife of Joshua Ward, but there are also arguments for another Amelia Gore nearly the same age being the wife of Joshua Ward. We thought that the wife was probably Amelia Norris because there were other family members living with them in 1860. She seemed the logical choice. There are sites on the Internet that say that he married both of them, and that some of the children's death certificates say their mother was Amelia Norris, and others say their mother was Amelia Gore. In the 1900 Census Joshua and Amelia are listed with one child. They state that they have been married 60 years.

Lewis H. Alford -Known as "Uncle H. ", he was the oldest of the children. He was tall and thin, also he looked a lot like his dad. H. married Frances McCracken and they had 12 children of which, Brant is the only one left living. In the mid to late 1890's, H. went to Florida with his wife and 4 children. Gaston and Preston were working turpentine in Fla. also, Rufus and Heywood went to Fla.

in turpentine too but I don't know if it was with their brothers or later. Preston said that H. sent his family back on the train and he walked back. When H.'s wife died, Brant stayed with Arn and Mantha until H. married Nettie Williamson. H. had no children by Nettie.

From Johnny Sarvis:

William Gaston Alford - Known as Gaston, he was born in May 1875. Gaston married M. Emma Rogers in 1900. Gaston served as a deacon at Gethsemane and in 1910 census it shows him having Elbert, 5 yrs. old and Leatha, 2 yrs. old. Brant remembers Gaston talking about wanting to go to Florida. I have the old deeds where Arn's children sold the land Arn left them at his death in 1917, so Gaston must not have left til, like Brant says, in 1922. I have heard so much bad said about Gaston and after talking to a lot of people, I don't believe all was his fault. I spoke with Ruth, Elbert's widow, and she said Elbert didn't talk a lot about it, though he did say he went to visit his dad in Florida but his dad sent him back home. Ruth remembers Gaston coming home about Sept. of 1934, old and blind. She says she watched one morning as Gaston went to drink his coffee, there was a fly in it and she says if she hadn't stopped him he would have drank it. She said he died before Christmas of 1934 and she liked him a lot. Gaston was buried at Old Gethsemane Graveyard without a marker.

SC Death Certificate #12419 on file with AAFA: Cause of death: "Paralytic - sudden attack - no physician - died before physician was called."

Family group record prepared by Johnny O. Sarvis has death as Jun 21 1937.

From Johnny Sarvis:

Joseph Preston Alford - Known as "Pres", this was my grandfather and though I never knew him, could talk of him and ask questions for quite awhile. Preston was born in 1877 and was called up for the Spanish-American War in 1898, but never had to go. Preston's first wife was Ruth Magnolia Skipper, they married in approx: 1898 and had 5 kids. In June of 1911, "Nollie" gave birth to their 5th child, Maggie, and a few days later she died, she was buried at Methodist Rehoboth. Preston married next, my grandmother, Isabella Mishoe Gerald. She was the daughter of John Hamlin Mishoe, who was the son of Noah Mayberry Mishoe, who was in the calvry in the "WAR" and later served as magistrate. John H.'s mother was Isabella Johnson, he was the grandson of John and Francis Mishoe. My grandmother's mother was Annie Holt, she was the daughter of Benjamin Holt and Jane Grimes. Her grandparents were Egbert Holt and Ann Grainger, who was the son of William Holt, a minister, from Ireland and Milly Dorman. Benjamin Holt was a lieutenant in the "WAR", and died a lawyer in Marion.

Preston fathered 7 children by Isabella. Grandmama had first married Everett Gerald and had 3 children by him. Everett died in 1909. Grandmama said Preston was the most honest person she ever knew. Granddaddy farmed, fished and trapped for fur in Lake Swamp to make a "living." Mr. Holt said people always said that "there weren't no hide left in that swamp by the time Pres and Heywood got through." Preston served as a deacon in his local church. He is described as being a very principled man that stood up for what he believed in, never have I heard anyone say that he was not friendly or nice to people. He stood over 6 ft. tall, broad shouldered and was built muscular. Mr. Holt says "if a bale of cotton was in Preston's way, why he would just pick it up and move it out of the way." Granddaddy had a stroke in 1929 or 1930, and for the rest of his life until his death in 1937, he was crippled or pretty much an invalid.

HEYWOOD ALFORD - I can remember this man and I sure wish I had talked to him a lot more than I did. In the 1880 census (he was born in 1879), Heywood's name is listed as Hagwood and I do believe Arnold meant to name him after the Gen.Hagood, that Arn served with in the War. At any rate, Heywood farmed and trapped for a living. He married Nellie Barnhill and they had 10 children. I remember going to see Uncle Heywood in Fair Bluff, N.C., when I was a little boy. I can remember going to visit him in the nursing home. I have recently spoken to his daughter Nina. and to his son Norwood, whose son Ronald is now the commander of the S.C. Highway Patrol.

Nov 19 1910, in Horry Co., SC, Harriett Walker Lane #4352, b. Jan 20 1886, (daughter of Frank D. Lane #4706 and . #4707) d. Jan 14 1964, Horry Co., SC, buried: Gethsemane Cem., Horry Co., SC. Rufus died Nov 4 1950.

On Rufus Arnold Alford s 1918 WWI Draft Registration Card, he is age 35, a self-employed farmer living in Galivants Ferry, Horry Co., SC. He says he was b. 2 Oct 1882, names his wife Hattie Alford as his nearest relative, and signs his name R.A. Alford.

From Johnny Sarvis:

RUFUS ARNOLD ALFORD - Born in 1882, Rufus spent some time in Florida, with the turpentine business. He returned and married Harriett Walker Lane, in about 1909. In talking with his daughter, Eula, she said her dad really liked Florida and would probably have went back, but he was raising a family and his wife didn't really like the idea of going so far away from the family. Rufus served as a deacon at Gethsemane Church for as long as his health would permit and then was made an honorary deacon for life. Eula can remember the young deacons coming to see "Uncle Rufie" when they were confronted with a church or business matter that needed some good "wise counseling." Rufus and his wife raised 8 children, of which I know Eula, Eloise and Ernestine. Though Eula is a couple of years older than me, we have always enjoyed a special relationship. and she has been very helpful to me. Rufus was always involved in, and willing to serve his community in any way he could. The farm that Eloise lives on was part of what Rufus owned and if you trace back. you'd find that it is part of the old Arn Alford homeplace. I do hope that it will remain in their family.

From Johnny Sarvis:

CURLEY COLA ALFORD - Bom in 1884, she was the baby and the only girl. Curley married G. Walter Floyd in 1910, they bought a farm and raised 7 children. I believe the oldest boy lives on the old farm. Curley is described by Mr. Holt as being a very nice woman, who was petted and well protected by her parents and brothers. Curley favored her mother a lot, and when her dad died in 1917, he left her the house and land it was on. ___ Johnny Sarvis
