AAFA #1146

July 14, 1937 - October 6, 2015

John T. Morgan, 78, of Columbia passed away Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2015, at Boone Hospital Center after a two-year battle with pulmonary fibrosis.

Private graveside services will be Friday, Oct. 9, in Columbia Cemetery. A visitation will be from noon to 2 p.m. Friday at Parker Funeral Service.

John was born in Oklahoma and raised in St. Louis by William and Julia Morgan.

He attended Missouri Baptist University in St. Louis, where he became an X-ray technician and met the love of his life, Judy Morgan. John worked at Boone Hospital for 18 years and then at the University Hospital before entering the real estate business in the 1980s. Upon retirement in 2000, he and Judy purchased their winter home in Florida and became true snow birds.

John is survived by his sons, Scott Morgan and wife Cindy, and Gregg Morgan and Amy Morgan; a very special niece, Pamela Hays, and her husband Scott; grandchildren Lindsey, Ian and Phoebe Morgan; nephews, Riley and Travis Hays.

In lieu of flowers, donations are suggested to the Red Cross, the Salvation Army or the charity of the donor's choice.
